Application Page 4 – Definitions of Key Terms Used in this Application

(These defined terms are italicized in the Application and may appear in the Policy.)

Minor ailment means an illness, disease, or injury which ended more than 30 days prior to the date coverage was to begin, as shown on the confirmation of coverage and which did not require:

- a) treatment for a period longer than 15 consecutive days; or
- b) more than one follow-up visit to a physician; or
- c) hospitalization, surgery, or referral to a specialist.

Physical means a periodic consultation with a physician either virtually or in-person scheduled in advance with the purpose of general health monitoring which may include routine medical tests and which is unrelated to any specific symptom, illness, condition or disease.

Physician is a person who is not you or a member of your immediate family or your traveling companion, licenced in the jurisdiction where their services are provided, to prescribe and administer medical treatment.

Stable describes any medical condition or related condition for which there:

- a) has been no new treatment; and
- b) has been no change in treatment or change in treatment frequency or type; and
- c) have been no signs or symptoms or new diagnosis; and
- d) have been no test results showing deterioration; and
- e) has been no hospitalization; and
- f) has been no referral to a specialist (made or recommended) and you are not awaiting the results of further investigations performed by any medical professional.

The following are considered stable:

- a) Routine adjustment of insulin, Coumadin or Warfarin as long as the insulin, Coumadin or Warfarin is not first prescribed in the 90 days prior to the date coverage begins as shown on your confirmation of coverage and, if you have multi-trip annual coverage, the 90 days prior to each separate trip that begins when you depart from your province or territory of residence.
- b) Change from a brand name medication to a generic medication provided the medication was not first prescribed during the 90 days prior to the date coverage begins as shown on your confirmation of coverage and, if you have multi-trip annual coverage, the 90 days prior to each separate trip that begins when you depart from your province or territory of residence.
- c) A minor ailment.

Terminal illness means a medical condition that is cause for a physician to estimate that you have less than 24 months to live or for which palliative care was received prior to the date coverage began.

Treatment means a medical, therapeutic or diagnostic procedure prescribed, performed or recommended by a physician including, but not limited to, prescribed medication, investigative testing that results in a diagnosis of a specific medical condition or surgery.

Privacy Consent Notice

By submitting the requested information, which may include, but is not limited to, name, address, date of birth, driver's licence number, medical information, financial information, driving record, automobile insurance policy history, and automobile insurance claims history, you are providing consent to Zurich Insurance Company Ltd and its subsidiaries and affiliates located in your country of residency or abroad (collectively, "Zurich"), for the collection, storage, use, disclosure, and processing of your personal information as may be necessary for the purposes of securing and administering the requested insurance coverage(s), including but not limited to, risk evaluation, policy execution, premium setting, premium collection, claims adjusting, administration, investigation and settlement, fraud prevention, detection and suppression, or statistical evaluation. You are also providing consent to Zurich for the disclosure of your personal information to third parties, as required for and in relation to the above-stated purposes, including reinsurers, third party administrators, brokers, agents, claims adjusters, regulators or other governmental or public bodies, taxing authorities, industry associations, other insurers, and other third parties involved in providing insurance services ("Third Parties"). If your policy is being arranged by a broker or an agent, you authorize Zurich to collect, store, use, disclose, and process personal information received from such broker or agent in relation to the above-stated purposes. Additionally, by providing information about a third party, including but not limited to, a family member, director, officer, employee, or any party that has an interest in or derives a benefit from the policy, you hereby covenant and warrant that you have obtained the appropriate consent from such third party to disclose their personal information to Zurich and for Zurich to use and disclose such information for any of the above-stated purposes.

Zurich is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of information provided. Your personal information may be processed by and is securely stored within the offices of Zurich and authorized Third Parties, both in domestic and foreign jurisdictions outside Canada and is subject to applicable laws.

Zurich may retain your personal information as needed for any of the above-stated purposes or as necessary to comply with Zurich's legal and regulatory obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce Zurich's agreements. You may request to review the personal information Zurich maintains about you and make corrections by writing to: Privacy Officer, Zurich Insurance Company Ltd (Canadian Branch), 100 King Street West, Suite 5500, P.O. Box 290, Toronto, ON M5X 1C9 or by emailing privacy.zurich.canada@zurich.com.

You may refuse to consent or withdraw your consent to the collection, storage, use, disclosure or processing of your personal information; however, your refusal to provide consent may result in Zurich being unable to offer and administer insurance coverage or prevent Zurich from being able to pay any claim benefits payable under your policy.

Please contact the Zurich Privacy Officer if you require further information regarding the collection, use, disclosure, processing and storage of your personal information or if you have any complaints via email at privacy.zurich.canada@zurich.com.
